

JOH. BAPT. SCHÄFER.

WINE.

DESIGNATION

Rummelsheim Riesling -Kieselstein-

TASTE

dry

VDP.CLASSIFICATION

VDP.ORTSWEIN

VINTAGE

2015

PRODUCER

Joh. Bapt. Schäfer, Burg Layen, Germany

WINE-GROWING REGION

Nahe / Estate-bottled

SOIL / SITE / ORIGIN

very pebbly soils; the vineyards are situated above Rummelsheim at an altitude of 260 m above sea-level

WINEMAKING

selective handpicking, eight hours of maceration, gentle pressing with little pressure, fermentation and maturation in traditional wooden barrels of 1,200 liters (Stückfass), spontaneous fermentation; left on the fine lees until April

IDEAL FOR CONSUMPTION

2016 – 2022

PROFILE

delicate yeasty spiciness with a complex structure, salty mineral notes and very firm on the palate, a racy Riesling with great aging potential; compliments light fish dishes

Weingut Joh. Bapt. Schäfer
Inh. Sebastian Schäfer
Burg Layen 8
55452 Burg Layen
www.jbs-wein.de schaefer@jbs-wein.de

19 10

VDP. PRÄDIKATSWEINGUT

WINE ESTATE.

Joh. Bapt. Schäfer is situated on the lower Nahe in Burg Layen near Rummelsheim, just a few kilometers northeast of Bad Kreuznach. Sebastian Schäfer took over the estate from his father Johann Baptist Schäfer in 2002 as the fourth generation. Currently, 8 hectares of vineyards are in production. Sebastian Schäfer's aim is to make distinctive, individual wines that perfectly express their terroir. Since 2013 the winery has been a member of the VDP (Association of German Prädikat Wine Estates).